Ways of Making the High Holy Days More Accessible

- Outreach to our homebound - Should you or someone you know be homebound for the holidays, please know that you can view our services on our website, www.tbefspringfield.org.
- Audio Enhancement System - Earphone sets are available for the hearing impaired.
- Large Print Mahzors - These additions of our Mahzor Lev Shalem are available in the lobby.
- Second Day of Rosh HaShanah - Our service is open to anyone in the community wishing to attend the second day of Rosh HaShanah.

How You Can Make Our High Holy Days More Special

- Operation Isaiah - We will be conducting our annual Food Drive. We ask every family to bring a package or bag of nonperishable food to the synagogue on Kol Nidre, to be distributed to those in need via the Open Pantry.

High Holy Day Events

- Selihot Program and Service, Saturday, September 24, 7:30 pm. The evening will begin with Havdalah and dessert, followed by the film, Women in Sink. (See article on front page.) The film will be followed by Selihot services at approximately 9:00 pm.
- Cemetery Visits - It is customary to visit the graves of family and friends as the new year draws near. You are, of course, welcome to visit the cemetery on your own. Please know that Rev. David Aminia will be at the cemetery on Sunday, October 2 and Sunday, October 9 from 9:30 am-noon for families or individuals who need assistance in the reciting of appropriate prayers.
- Family Services - We will hold our annual services with your children on the first day of Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. See the High Holy Day schedule and the article on page 5 for details. Do not miss these innovative and musical services in the tent by the Sandi Kupperman Learning Center entrance.
- Tashlikh - Join us for a joint Tashlikh with Congregation B'nai Torah on Monday, October 3 at 5:00 pm in Forest Park, as we literally throw away our mistakes from the past year by using breadcrumbs which are symbolic of our sins. Let the guard at the gatehouse as you enter the park know that you are from TBE and you will not be charged an admission fee. Note there will be no evening service at TBE for the second night of Rosh HaShanah.
- Break the Fast - Temple Beth El will once again host a congregational break fast after the sounding of the shofar on Wednesday, October 12. See the High Holy Day schedule and the article on page 9 for details.
- Lulav and Etrog - The deadline to order your lulav and etrog is Thursday, October 6. The cost is $60 per set.
