

High Holy Days Guide 5779/2018

Rabbi Amy Walk Katz

As I write this article I am studying at the Hartman Institute in Jerusalem. Being in Israel refuels me. Whether I am hiking, going for coffee, or studying in the Beit Midrash, there is something about being in the Jewish homeland that gives me new energy and insight. I am so grateful to the congregation for this time to study.

There are a few things that are hard about being in Israel. The politics here are challenging. I took several day trips to better understand the conflict. Those days were emotionally draining and very hard. I am still forming my reactions to what I have seen. Of course I will share my experiences with the congregation.

For me, personally, walking in Jerusalem is hard.

The pavement is uneven and Jerusalem is hilly. Because the Jerusalem is a city often best navigated by foot, I tend to walk everywhere. Consequently, by the end of the day, I am physically exhausted! Over the years I have learned to pay particular attention to the shoes I wear here. Sandals look nice, but they don't give enough support for the cobblestone, uneven pavement, hills, and distance. I've learned to choose wisely and this year I got it right and my joints are much happier!

Many of us think about the shoes we take with us to travel. Some think about fashion. Others think about comfort. Some of us try to combine both.

Make the High Holy Days More Accessible to You

• Outreach to our homebound – Should you or someone you know be homebound for the holidays, please know that you can watch our services online. Visit our website, tbespringfield.org, and click where it says "Sanctuary Services Live."

• Audio Enhancement System – Earphone sets are available for the hearing impaired.

• Large Print Mahzors – These additions of our Mahzor Lev Shalem are available in the lobby.

• Second Day of Rosh HaShanah – Our service is open to anyone in the community wishing to attend the second day of Rosh HaShanah.

• Alternative Observances – We are offering a hike on the second day of Rosh HaShanah Hike and a Musical Meditation on Yom Kippur. Contact the office to sign up for the hike. See the details in the next Tekiah.

Quite by chance, while congratulating myself about my shoe selection and so too sifting through the enormity of lessons learned from my studies at Hartman and day trips to explore Israel, I came across this poem by Ruth Forman and I couldn't help but connect this poem to my time here and the approaching the work of the High Holy Days.

Prayers Like Shoes

Ruth Forman

I wear prayers like shoes

pull em on quiet each morning take me through the uncertain day

don't know what might knock me off course

sit up in bed pull on the right then the left before shower before teeth

my mama's gift to walk me through this life

she wore strong ones
the kind steady your ankles i know cause when her man left / her children gone / her eldest son without goodbye they the only ones keep her standing

i saw her still standing mama passed on some things to me

ma smile sense a discipline ma subtle behind

but best she passed on girl you go to God and get you some good shoes cause this life ain't steady ground

now i don't wear hers
you take em with you you know but i suspect they made by the same company pull em on each morning first the right then the left best piece a dress

i got

We all wear shoes and have stories about them. Some of us buy new shoes for the first day of school, or the High Holy Days, or a new fitness program, or a birthday, a ball, or a wedding. Those shoes and the stories that go with them shape the steps by which we approach each day, each task, or each event.

Elul is a month designed to reflect on the kinds of shoes we wear. What would be included in your prayer shoes? What is the nature of the prayer shoes that you would give to a loved one? Will you lace up shoes of gratitude or grief on Rosh HaShanah? Will you slip on the shoes of haughtiness or humility on Yom Kippur? As we prepare ourselves for the High Holy Days, it is time for us to consider our shoe choices and the stories that go with them and the feelings and experiences we have in our travels and traverses.

May it be a journey of strength and meaningful reflection.

High Holy Day Appeal

Help us continue the many high quality spiritual, educational, cultural and social programs, as well as maintain our building and meet our expenses. Our High Holy Day appeal is an important fundraiser. The proceeds of the appeal go into our general operating budget for the year. We will be mailing out an appeal card as part of your ticket this month, and our formal appeal will be made from the bimah on the first day of Rosh HaShanah. Kindly mail your card to the temple office before the holidays or bring it with you to the temple on Rosh HaShanah. Please consider increasing your pledge from last year. Thank you in advance for your generous support of this important fundraiser.

It is appropriate to recite Psalm 27 for the entire month leading up to Rosh HaShanah. This is a way of preparing oneself for the work of the High Holy Days.

A Psalm of David

The Lord is my light and my help.
Whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the strength of my life.
Whom shall I dread?

When evildoers draw near to slander me,
when foes threaten, they stumble and fall.

Though armies be arrayed against me,
I will have no fear.

Though wars threaten, I remain steadfast in my faith.

One thing I ask of the Lord, for this I yearn:
To dwell in the House of the Lord all the days of my life,
to behold His beauty, to pray in His sanctuary.

He will hide me in His shrine, safe from peril.
He will shelter me beyond the reach of disaster.

He will raise my head high above my enemies.
I will bring Him offerings with shouts of joy, singing, chanting praise to the Lord.

O Lord, hear my voice when I call:
be gracious to me, and answer.

It is You that I seek, says my heart.
It is Your Presence that I seek, O Lord.

Hide not from me, reject not Your servant.

You have always been my help, do not abandon me.
Forsake me not, my God of deliverance.

Though my father and mother leave me,
the Lord will care for me.

Teach me Your way, O Lord: guide me on the right path, to confound my oppressors.

Abandon me not to the will of my foes.

False witnesses have risen against me, people who breathe out lies.

Mine is the faith that I surely shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.

Hope in the Lord and be strong.
Take courage, hope in the Lord.

-Psalm 27

High Holy Day Events 5779

Selihot Program and Service, Saturday,

September 1 at 7:30 pm. – The evening will begin with refreshments and Havdalah. At 8:00 pm, we will show the Israeli film, In Between. This is the fascinating story of Dana and Amit, who met when they were 25, then married and had 2 children. Soon after their second child, Amit turned ultra-Orthodox. Dana stayed secular. They are still very much in love. Will their love be able to overcome the growing gaps between them? This award-winning film will be followed by Selihot services at approximately 9:15 pm..

Cemetery Visits – It is customary to visit the graves of family and friends as the new year draws near. You are, of course, welcome to visit the cemetery on your own. Rev. David Aminia will be at the cemetery on Sunday, September 9 and Sunday, September 16 from 9:30 am—noon for families or individuals who need assistance in the reciting of appropriate prayers.

Family Services – We will hold our annual services with your children on the first day of Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur (see schedule). Back by popular demand, Marlene Rachele will be leading the family services on Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. Marlene is a family educator who leads musical Tot Shabbat services in the Upper Valley, and teaches a Jewish music class at the Springfield JCC for young children and their caretakers. After completing an undergraduate degree in communications from UMass, which led to a career as a Senior Producer at MTV Networks, Marlene went back to school to receive an M.A. in Jewish Education from the Jewish Theological Seminary's Davidson School. Since receiving her Masters, Marlene has taught and developed programming for Jewish schools, organizations, and the JCC in Manhattan. Do not miss these innovative and musical services in our outdoor tent.

Tashlikh – Join us for Tashlikh on Monday, September 10 at 5:00 pm in Forest Park, as we literally throw away our mistakes from the past year by using breadcrumbs which are symbolic of our sins. Just inform the guard at the gatehouse as you enter the park that you are from TBE and you will not be charged an admission fee. Please note there will be no evening service at Temple Beth El on the second night of Rosh HaShanah.

Break the Fast – Temple Beth El will host a congregational break fast after the sounding of the shofar on Wednesday, September 19. A sumptuous dairy buffet will feature bagels with cream cheese or lox spread, kugel, salads, fruit and a selection of pastries. The cost is $12 per person ages 10 and over, $10 per child ages 5 – 9, and free for children under 5. Attendance is by reservation only. The deadline for paid reservations is Friday, September 7; R.S.V.P. by calling 733-4149 or emailing office@tbespringfield.org.

We'd like to thank Fred Brownstein and Elaine Geha once again for generously underwriting the Break Fast.

Sukkot Events

The holidays continue after the High Holy Days! Please join us at TBE for the festive holidays of Sukkot and Simḥat Torah. Please see page 1 for service times. Here is some additional information about these upcoming fall holidays:

Sukkah Raising and Chili Cook-off – On erev Sukkot, Sunday, September 23 at 3:00 pm, we will prepare our congregation's sukkah on our patio. Everyone is invited to help decorate the sukkah, say the brachot and perform the mitzvah of eating dinner in the sukkah. This year we will repeat our fun-filled Chili Cook-off, and dinner will be served at 5:30 pm. If you are interested in participating in the Chili Cook-off, please contact Caryn Resnick at cresnick@tbespringfield.org. Come and learn how to shake the lulav, be visited by ushpizen (mystery guests), and vote for the best chili recipe. The dinner menu includes: chili, green salad, crusty bread, beverages and dessert; pasta for those who don't eat chili. The cost is $10 per adult; $6 children 10-years-old and younger; no charge for children 3 and under. R.S.V.P. to Marie at sklc@tbespringfield.org or 737-0170 by September 10.

Tot Sukkot – Cantor Barber will be leading a tot holiday program at our Sukkah Raising celebration on Sunday, September 23 at 5:00 pm. This interactive musical program is for children ages 5 and younger. Come to just this program, come earlier and help decorate the sukkah, or come for all and stay for our family-friendly dinner in the sukkah at 5:30 pm (see above for details). If you plan to stay for dinner, R.S.V.P. to Marie at sklc@tbespringfield.org by September 10.

Lulav and Etrog – The deadline to order your lulav and etrog is Monday, September 17. The cost is $60 per set.

Operation Isaiah Food Drive

We will be conducting our annual Food Drive. We ask every family to bring a package or bag of nonperishable food to the synagogue on Kol Nidre, to be distributed to those in need via the Open Pantry.

Cooking with Tina Wasserman

Back by popular demand is cookbook author, food historian and award-winning cooking instructor Tina Wasserman. She will be here at TBE on Tuesday, August 28 for a hands-on cooking class in afternoon, and an evening presentation about fall holiday food traditions.

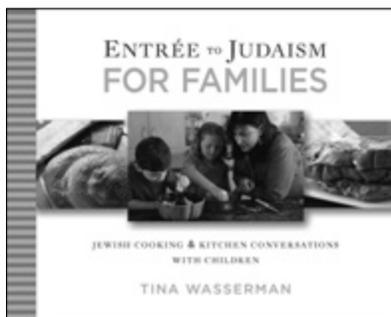

Tina was our Scholar-in-Residence for a weekend in March, and those who attended her cooking classes, Shabbat dinner featuring her recipes, and other programs can attest to her extraordinary knowledge on the subject of Jewish food and its history, and her passion for teaching. She is the author of two best-selling cookbooks, Entrée to Judaism: A Culinary Exploration of the Jewish Diaspora and Entrée to Judaism for Families: Cooking and Kitchen Conversations with Children.

Tuesday, August 28

Cooking with Tina – 2:00-5:00 pm. This is your opportunity to work side-by-side with Tina, learn new tips in the kitchen, and try out new recipes for the High Holy Days. Participants will prepare dishes including: gefilte fish loaf, sweet potato pumpkin casserole, dulce de manzana, star-shaped challah, Ethiopian black beans, and Moroccan britwats. The cost for the cooking class is $18 per person.

"The History and Traditions of High Holy Day Food" – 7:00 pm. Tina will explore the historical connections to our culinary traditions of High Holy Day foods, and attendees will sample a taste of the recipes that were prepared during the day. There is no charge for this program.

To R.S.V.P. or for more information visit tbespringfield.org.

Finding just the right shoe

Rabbi Amy Walk Katz

According to Jewish tradition, one does not wear leather shoes on Yom Kippur. It is not that we are commanded to wear sneakers. But it is a mitzvah to avoid wearing leather shoes (belts and accessories are traditionally permitted). Why? The prooftext emerges from the Book of Leviticus where we are told to practice self-denial on Yom Kippur. According to the Rabbis, we do this by abstaining from eating, drinking, anointing oneself (which is understood today as applying lotions, creams, or make up), bathing, and physical intimacy. But the one that is often forgotten is to abstain from wearing leather footwear.

To our ancient ancestors, leather shoes were a luxury item. To wear leather shoes was a sign of comfort and status. Our sages taught that such comfortable shoes contradicted the spirit of the message "practice self-denial" ourselves.

In the 21st century, I am not sure that avoiding leather is indeed self-denial. I do not wear leather, because it is how I have observed Yom Kippur for about 30 years or so. It is just what I do.

And now I can't help but wonder – what shoes will you wear on Yom Kippur?

Musical Meditation on Yom Kippur

On the afternoon of Yom Kippur, after the Mindfulness study, a pianist and cellist will perform beautiful, contemplative High Holy Day music in a small, quiet program in the chapel. This will be a time to listen, reflect and let the music move us. The musical meditation is funded by the Katz Endowment Fund.

Temple Beth El High Holy Day Ticket Policy

Members of Temple Beth El in good standing* will be issued tickets for Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. Tickets may be requested in advance for children ages 18 – 30 who are not students or military personnel. Please call the temple office (733-4149) to request these tickets before the holidays. Children under the age of 18 do not require tickets to attend services.

Members who generously offer to pay enhanced dues at the Pillar level receive free guest tickets (2 tickets for Maccabim who pay $2,100, 4 free tickets for Shomrim who pay $2,500, 6 free tickets for Kochavim who pay

$3,600 and 8 free tickets for Giborim who pay $5,000).

Children of members who are either full-time students or full-time military personnel will be admitted to services upon presentation of college or military ID. Students attending local colleges and military personnel will be admitted upon presentation of ID. Tickets may be requested, free of charge, for children of members who are under the age of 30.

Parents or children (ages 30 or older) of congregants, as well as other relatives or guests can receive tickets free of charge if they are members of another area synagogue. We honor tickets or letter of good standing from all area synagogues. Tickets will be issued in advance upon presentation of a letter from their congregation showing that they are members in good standing.*

Members may purchase tickets for any relative, including children over 30 and parents, or a guest who is not a member of another synagogue.

Associate members who are not members of another synagogue are entitled to purchase High Holy Days tickets.

Please be prepared to present your ticket upon entering the building.

 Members in good standing have paid dues in full or have established a payment plan for their dues obligation prior to the High Holy Days.*

Guest Tickets

Guest tickets may be purchased for any relatives or guests who are not members of another synagogue. Cost: $125 for all High Holy Days, $65 for Rosh HaShanah or Yom Kippur services only.

Tips for an Enjoyable Holy Day Experience at Temple Beth El

Ralph Ritchie Executive Director

As your Executive Director, I want to share with you information to help make your worship experience at TBE both uplifting and efficient.

As always, I welcome your comments and suggestions for improvement. We may not be able to implement all of them, but I am happy to discuss with you our reasoning for the way things are done.

I look forward to seeing you soon and wish everyone a happy, healthy, and peaceful New Year.

Ralph Ritchie

Starting time – Please note that services on the first and second days of Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur begin at 8:30 am. An earlier start time means an earlier ending time. People seem to appreciate the chance to get home earlier for lunch on Rosh HaShanah. We hope that, therefore, most of you will be able to stay until the end of services.

Parking lot – For the safety of all, please reduce your speed as you enter the parking lot and keep it low while you are in our parking lot. This year, we will be setting up the tent for our family services by the Sandi Kupperman

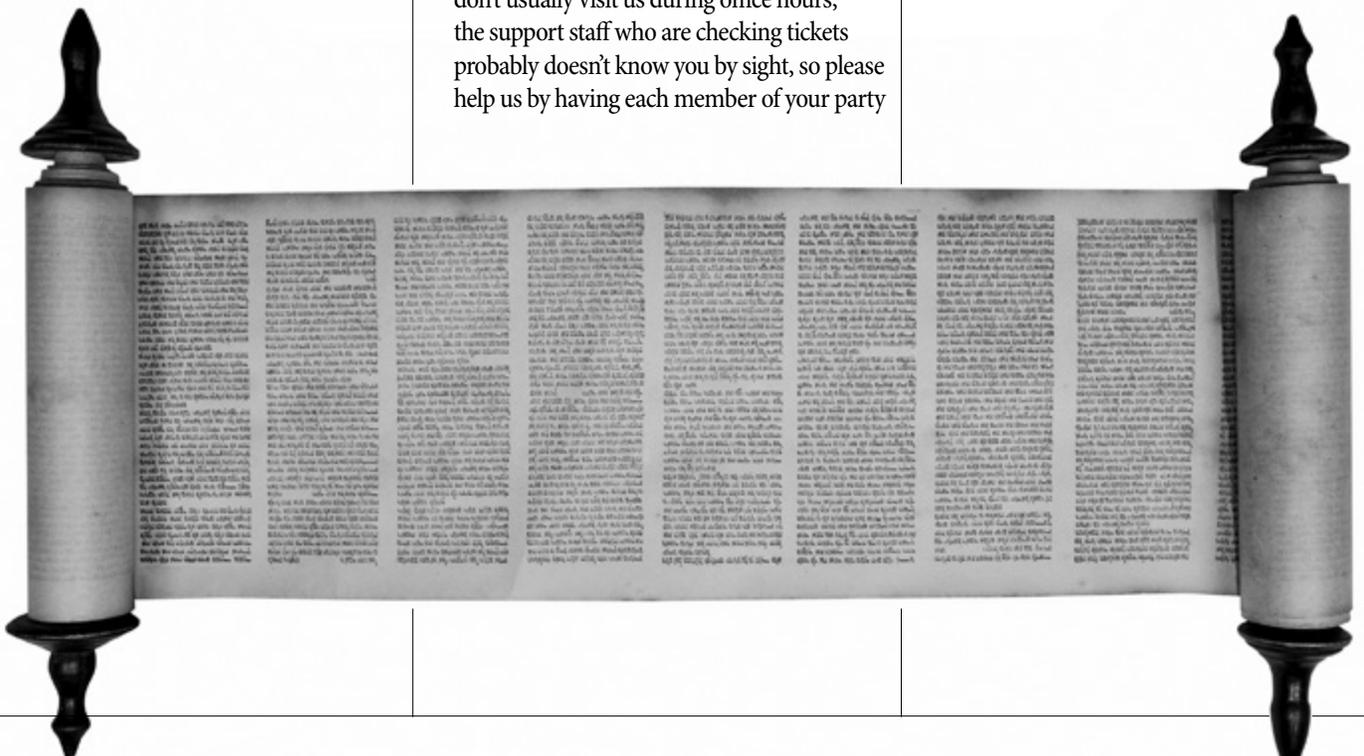

Learning Center entrance. Part of it will be protruding into the parking lot with cones around it. So, now more than ever, it is important to proceed cautiously in our parking lot. We have set aside quite a few handicap spaces, while we try to balance with the need for enough spaces for everyone else. We encourage those with elderly or infirm passengers to drop them off by the entrance before parking. There are beautiful benches, donated a few years ago by Donna and Steve Feldman, where people can wait for the others in their party who may be parking the car. As always, we will have police officers available to provide security and help direct traffic at the conclusion of services.

Tickets – Tickets are being mailed in mid-August for all adult members of your household. Several years ago, we instituted a new ticket format, which includes helpful information as well as the ticket and the High Holy Day appeal card, all in one pamphlet. This year's ticket pamphlets are yellow. The front page is your ticket, which can be separated from the rest of pamphlet if you prefer. Please be sure to have your tickets out when you enter TBE. We take the security of those who come to Temple Beth El very seriously. Seeing tickets helps us to ensure that we know everyone who enters our doors and that we get information about those we don't know. Therefore, we ask everyone to show their tickets, whether they've been members for 50 years or 1 year or are guests. Please remember that if you don't usually visit us during office hours, the support staff who are checking tickets probably doesn't know you by sight, so please help us by having each member of your party have their tickets out when you approach the door. College students do not require tickets but should show their school IDs. There will be a table manned by staff members who can handle any issues which may arise regarding tickets.

Seating – As always, we have set up chairs in the Social Hall to accommodate the large numbers we expect over the holy days. While we understand that some people prefer to sit in the back, especially those with small children, there are always many seats available in the front or sides of the sanctuary. Please do not ask us to set up more chairs in the back unless you have determined that there are no seats in the sanctuary. If you are very concerned about where you sit, we respectfully suggest that you plan to arrive as early as possible to ensure that you can sit where you like. We also encourage everyone to fill in the seats in the middle of sections before they fill up the aisle seats to prevent others from having to climb over them to get to unoccupied seats.

Temperature – We try hard to make sure that all of our congregants are comfortable while in the synagogue. However, with hundreds of people in attendance, it is difficult to meet everyone's individual needs. We gear the temperature to those who are wearing the most layers of clothing which cannot be removed -- shirts, ties, jackets, and tallitot. Therefore, we suggest that you may want to bring a jacket or sweater, which can be worn or removed, depending on whether you feel too warm or too cold.

Children – We love children and have designed a number of interesting programs for them over the holidays. A sign in the lobby will indicate where in the building the various programs will take place. We ask that if your children will not be participating in the children's programming, that they join you in the sanctuary. To ensure the safety of all, please remind your children not to run through the hallways when they are not in services and to abide by any requests from staff regarding their behavior. We appreciate our parents reinforcing the importance of respecting others and the temple building with their children.

Conversation in the lobby – We understand that everyone needs to take a break some time and that we all love to socialize with friends whom we haven't seen in a while. However, with the doors to the sanctuary and social hall frequently opening and closing, the noise from the lobby can be a distraction to the worship service. In consideration of others, we ask everyone – children and adults -- to refrain from loud conversation while they are in the lobby, so that we can be sure that everyone has an enjoyable experience this holiday season.

Refreshment Tent – Thanks to the generosity of Paul and Esta Farkas, we will again have a tent for refreshments (apples, cookies, lemonade and coffee) on the front patio on both days of Rosh HaShanah. There will be a separate tent for children and families by the Family Service tent. We ask that you please enjoy your refreshments outside and make use of the trash barrels in the tents to dispose of your cups and napkins before you re-enter the synagogue. We ask for your cooperation in not bringing any food or drink into the lobby or sanctuary.

Operation Isaiah Food Drive – Once again this year, we will be collecting food for the Open Pantry on Kol Nidre. A truck from Open Pantry will be in our parking lot from 5:30 – 7:00 pm that evening. When you do your holiday grocery shopping, please remember to purchase some non-perishable items for the hungry in our community and bring them with you on Kol Nidre.

Kol Nidre – Please be sure to be here by 6:30 pm so that you can partake in this inspiring service, which includes beautiful music as well as the Torah processional by our past presidents from both Beth El and B'nai Jacob, from beginning to end.

High Holy Day Appeal – Our President, Dave Ratner, will be making an appeal for additional support of the synagogue on the first day of Rosh HaShanah. If, by that day, you have not sent in your completed pledge card or made your donation online on our website, please be sure to bring with you the portion of the ticket pamphlet for the appeal.

Break the Fast – As we have done for the past several years, we will host a full meal for a congregational break fast following the final shofar blast at 7:37 pm on Wednesday, September 19. Attendance is by pre-paid reservation only. We ask that if you would like to attend that you call (733-4149) or e-mail us (office@tbespringfield.org) by Friday, September 7, so that we can plan to have enough food for everyone. Fred Brownstein and Elaine Geha are once again underwriting the cost to make it as affordable as possible for those who want to attend.

Sukkot and Simhat Torah – The holidays continue after Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur! Please see the Sukkot article on page 4. Look for more information on Simhat Torah in the September/October issue of Tekiah, including menu details, prices and reservation deadlines.

Hike with Josh Weiss on 2nd Day of Rosh HaShanah

Come journey into the wilderness as we start the new year together. We will spend the morning hiking up Mt. Tom as an alternate spiritual experience. Josh Weiss spent many years working on the development of a long distance walking and traveling route in the Middle East called the Abraham Path. He has hiked hundreds of miles of terrain across the region, leading groups and facilitating conversations between people of many backgrounds and faiths.

The hike is approximately 2 miles, with relatively easy elevation, and is suitable for young children. Dress in comfortable clothing, preferably no jeans as they can become uncomfortable when wet. Comfortable shoes are recommended (no sandals); hiking boots are not required. Participants should bring their own water.

We will meet on Tuesday, September 11 at 10:00 am sharp at the Mt. Tom parking lot near the playground. The hike will last around 2 hours.

Call the TBE office at 733-4149 to R.S.V.P. or for more details. In case of rain, check our website for cancellation information.
