

NCCJ's Two-day Anti-Racism Workshop

Personal & Professional Development Opportunity

Advancing Equality.
Promoting Justice.
Building Community.

NCCJ's flagship program will look at bias, discrimination, oppression and privilege in the United States. And given the rise of racist acts during the pandemic, as well as the most recent horrific racist incidents, examining these issues takes on an even greater sense of urgency.

Temple Beth El, Sinai Temple and The Jewish Federation of Western Massachusetts have partnered with the National Conference for Community and Justice for their 2-day Anti-Racism Workshop on November 8 & 9, 2020

The workshop's topics include:

- The history of racism.
- How racism impacts everyone, generation after generation.
- How to talk effectively and compassionately about racism.
- Real life skills to interrupt all forms of bias and discrimination.
- Definitions and terms.
- Ways to take action and build equality in your workplace and community.

Temple Beth El & Sinai Temple Private Two-Day Workshop:

Sunday, November 8

&

Monday, November 9

Workshop Times

8:30 am to 4:30 pm EST

Registration details:

- Registration is required. Zoom information provided upon registration.
- Participants must attend the full program, both days.
- You will need to participate from a quiet space.
- This workshop is open to 30 participants. Only one person per Zoom link.

To register, please contact (413) 733-4149

Email: rabbikatz@tbespringfield.org with questions

