

A COMMUNITY SHABBAT CELEBRATION

JOIN US FOR A FESTIVE EVENING October 21-22

RACHEL KORAZIM

Rachel Korazim is a gifted Jewish educator who is beloved in our community. Rachel lives in Israel and specializes in using Israeli literature as a tool to help learners appreciate the complexity of Israeli society. Rachel has visited our community many times, both in-person and via Zoom. Her understanding of Israeli literature and the needs of her students make for an outstanding learning experience.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22 AT SINAI TEMPLE

7:30 PM

Come and enjoy an evening of singing Israeli songs – we will sing some of the classics, and Rachel will teach us some of the important stories behind the songs that have defined Israeli culture.

This potluck dessert reception is being organized by Ellen Gold – call 413-733-4149 and let us know what you would like to bake and share your talents with our community!

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21 AT TEMPLE BETH EL

6:00 PM

Shabbat services led by Cantor Barber, Rabbi Master and Rabbi Wallk. Rachel will teach a Shabbat poem or two during our service.

7:00 PM

Enjoy a tasty Shabbat dinner

Subsidized cost is $25

Sponsorships are available at the following levels
$36 $54 $118

These sponsorships include an $18 donation to JDC for Ukraine relief.

Menu

Salad; wild rice with caramelized onions and mushrooms; roasted vegetables; lemon chicken and pastries for dessert

Tables of 8 may be reserved.

Feel free to bring a bottle of Kosher wine to share with your table

8:00 PM

Our teacher Rachel Korazim will teach us how to allow modern Israeli poetry to help us appreciate Shabbat. Prayer, love, rest and sometimes hiking and playfulness as addressed in the works of Israeli poets who love and celebrate Shabbat in their own way.

RSVP BY MONDAY, OCTOBER 17

